All-Time Series W&M leads 61-58-5

#7 William and Mary (8-2, 6-1)
TRIBE

THE GAME

- The No. 14/16 University of Richmond Spiders return home to host the No. 7 Tribe of William & Mary in the battle for the Capital Cup at Robins Stadium.

- Richmond is led by head coach Danny Rocco, who guided the team to the FCS Playoffs last season for the first time since 2009. The team defeated Morgan State, 46-24, in the first round of the playoffs before falling at No. 6 Coastal Carolina. Richmond completed October at 5-0 and Coach Rocco's teams have gone 11-4 in that month. Rocco is 10-4 in November at Richmond.

- Saturday's game will mark the 125th meeting all-time between the two schools. William & Mary holds a 61-58-5 lead in what is know as the "Oldest Rivalry In The South".

QUICK SLANTS

- Jacobi Green recorded his fourth-straight 100-yard game, tallying 135 yards vs. Villanova.

- Over those four games, Green has 711 yards on 111 carries, averaging 6.4 yards per carry. Green has crossed the 1,000-yard mark for the season with 1,068 on the year, which is 9th on the single-season rushing list.

- WR Brian Brown also eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the season with 55 yards against the Wildcats. Brown has 1,079 yards so far this campaign and is just the second receiver in program history to go over 1,000 twice in a career.

- DB David Jones racked up a career-high 12 tackles in Saturday's loss. Freshman DL Andrew Clyde picked up two sacks.

LAST MEETING WITH WILLIAM & MARY- Nov. 22nd, 2014

- The Spiders won an offensive battle 34-20, in keeping the Capital Cup in Richmond. The Spiders out-gained the Tribe 473 to 320 in total offense, with Reggie Diggs hauling in two touchdown passes and posting 53 yards receiving. Seth Fisher rushed for 123 yards and two additional touchdowns. Richmond's defense forced the normally mistake-free Tribe offense into three turnovers.

- Richmond finished the regular season 8-4 overall and 5-3 in the CAA and earned a berth in the FCS NCAA playoffs.

LAST TIME OUT

- Richmond dropped a one-point decision 21-20 at Villanova Saturday. The loss marks the first time the season the Spiders have fallen in two-straight games. Richmond took the early lead at 7-0, but the Wildcats tied it at seven before the teams adjourned for the half.

- Villanova grabbed a 14-7 lead out of the intermission, and Richmond tied the score at 14 with a Jacobi Green touchdown run with 46 seconds left in the third quarter. Green's second touchdown of the game gave Richmond a 20-14 lead with 5:06 left, but the extra point was blocked which left the door open for Villanova. The Wildcats would score the game-winning touchdown with 41 seconds left in the game, dropping the Spiders to 5-2 in CAA play.

On The Line

Since UR and W&M met for the first time as league opponents (in the current league affiliation) in 1993, this game has meant the difference for at least one team winning at least a share of the league title nine times.

Saturday's meeting will be the 10th time that scenario has occurred, and a Richmond win would give the Spiders a share of the title. The Spiders have six previous wins (1998, 2000, 2005, 2007, 2009, and 2012) in the series under that circumstance.

National Ranking Streak

The Spiders dropped five spots in the STATS FCS Poll to 14th, and four spots in the FCS Coaches Poll to 16th this week. The recognition marks the 23rd consecutive week dating back to last season that the Spiders have been ranked nationally. Richmond was included in at least one of the major polls each week during the 2014 campaign, reaching as high as No. 8.

Opening Strong

In five of the last seven games, Richmond has come out with a touchdown drive on its' first possession of the game. Those scoring drives have also come off the opening possession of the game for either side. The Spiders have accomplished the feat in the last four straight games.

Getting Picky

Richmond has 13 interceptions in the last six games, and is tied for the lead in the CAA with 14 interceptions overall. Richmond is second in the CAA with a plus six turnover margin.

Catching Up

Richmond wide receivers Brian Brown (119.9) and Reggie Diggs (73.2) are first and third in the CAA in receiving yards per game. Brown hauled in a career-high 204 yards in the matchup with JMU and is ninth in the nation averaging 20.8 yards per catch. Diggs has recorded over 100 yards receiving in two of the last four games, with a career high 142 yards against Rhode Island and 128 yards against JMU. The duo went each went over 100 yards against James Madison and last accomplished the feat against Coastal Carolina in the 2014 playoffs.

Keeping Up With Jones

DB David Jones set a school record and a new career high with four interceptions against Albany, Oct. 31st. Jones has seven interceptions on the season, which leads the CAA and is third in the nation. The seven interceptions are tied for second on the Richmond single-season list, one behind Jeff Nixon who tops the list with eight picks.

Rocco's Impressive Record in November

In his nine seasons as a head coach, the Spiders' Danny Rocco has posted a record of 24-7 in the month of November. At Richmond, Rocco is 10-4 in the month, including a perfect 4-0 mark in 2013.

Rank and File

Richmond is 42-54 vs. nationally ranked teams over the last 20 years. The Spiders have had greater success vs. ranked opponents over the last 10 seasons however, with a record of 29-25 in that span. The highlight of Spider success during that time was a 20-8 record from 2007-2010, including a 7-2 mark against the Top 25 during the 2008 National Championship season.

Strong Arming

Offensive lineman Thomas Evans owns the distinction of being the strongest player in Spider football history. The redshirt junior holds the Richmond three-lift total record, which includes the power clean, back squat, and bench press totaling 1575 lbs. moved. He also holds the bench press record at 525 lbs. and the power clean record at 425 lbs.

SCOUTING WILLIAM AND MARY:

- William & Mary running back Kendell Anderson leads the CAA in rushing with 117.1 yards per game. Anderson's 13 touchdowns is tied for second in the CAA.

- Tribe Quarterback Steve Cluley has thrown just two interceptions in 282 attempts. Cluley completed 21 of 23 passes in a win over Towson Saturday. The offensive line has allowed only 11 sacks, tops in the CAA.

- William & Mary has taken over the lead in the CAA in turnover margin, with a plus 12 mark on the season.

- The Tribe has won six straight games since a loss to Delaware, posting 30-plus points in each of those outings.

- The Tribe last made the FCS playoffs in 2010, when they finished tied for first in the CAA with a 6-2 record.

- William & Mary has secured a share of the 2015 CAA title but Richmond can spoil its bid for the automatic qualifier to the FCS Playoffs.

Andrew Clyde Breakout

Redshirt freshman DL Andrew Clyde equalled a career-high with two sacks against Villanova, originally set opposite Elon. Clyde has registered 41 tackles on the season, 20 in the last four games, and leads the team with seven tackles for loss.

Lauletta Career Highs

Quarterback Kyle Lauletta established a new career high in passing yards with 415 vs. James Madison. Lauletta set a career high with four touchdowns against Maine. He currently leads the CAA in passing yards (274.1) and is second in efficiency rating (150.8).

Notable National Rankings

Richmond QB Kyle Lauletta has been a picture of efficiency this season and currently sits 17th in the nation with a 150.8 rating. WR Brian Brown has been the sophomore's favorite target in the seven games he has been active, collecting 119.9 yards per game through the air which ranks 3rd in the nation as well.

Trevor Jones

The DB had his first career interception vs. Rhode Island and a career-best eight tackles opposite the Maine Black Bears including six solo stops which led all Spiders. Since the injury to Tafon Mainsah, Jones has taken on an increased role in the defensive backfield splitting time between, corner, safety and linebacker, thriving at each spot.

Have A Day

Junior LB Madison Day (6-3, 210 Midlothian, Va) had a career day vs. VMI Sept 19th. Day recorded 12 tackles while filling in for Omar Howard and returned an interception 23 yards and a touchdown. Day is a former lacrosse player for the Spiders starting seven games as a freshman for Spider lacrosse.

Howard Hammers

LB Omar Howard has been a tackling machine for the Spiders so far this season. Howard equaled a career-high with 18 tackles, 15 solo, against Rhode Island. Howard is currently third in the CAA at 9.3 tackles per game (93 total).

Fisher Touchdowns

RB Seth Fisher's 13-yard touchdown run against Rhode Island was his 29th career score. Fisher is currently tied for fourth place on the career-scoring list. Fisher racked up the touchdowns last season for the Spiders. He finished third in the CAA with 16 total scores (12 rush, 4 pass) and also led the team with 777 rushing yards.

Defense Sacks at Elon

The Richmond Spiders defense collected seven sacks in a 30-10 win at Elon on October 25, 2014. DL Justin Williamson had three, DL Evan Kelly two and LB Eric Wright and Omar Howard each had one. On Saturday the Spiders wrestled down Elon QB's five more times, a season high.

Sparky Woods

Woods joins the Richmond staff for the first time in 2015. Woods brings a great wealth of football knowledge and experience with him to Richmond. Woods has 17 years of head coaching experience at Appalachian State, South Carolina and most recently, VMI, as well as 20 years of assistant coach experience at both the collegiate and professional levels.

Non-League Brilliance

Richmond has lost only one non-conference FCS game in the regular season since 2005, going 23-1 since then. The only setback during the stretch was a 12-10 loss at Gardner-Webb on September 14, 2013. Including the Spiders' annual game versus an FBS opponent, Richmond's non-conference regular-season record since 2007 is 20-8 (that includes wins at Duke in 2009 and 2011).

Career Tackling Day

Six defensive players set their career-high in tackles for a single-game against VMI. Madison Day led the way with twelve tackles. Trevor Jones (7), DeAnthony Muse (7), Kiernan Gregory (4), Justin Rubin (4), and Devin Cook (2) all exceeded their career-best totals. Nick Velardo (3) and Charles Mack (2) matched their career-best totals.

New Players Make Their Debut

The Spiders had 17 players make their collegiate debut opposite Maryland while four transfers made their debut in a Richmond uniform. Freshman WR Tyler Wilkins made two catches for 29 yards while redshirt-sophomore WR Dashon Tibbs made his Spider debut by catching three balls for 30 yards.

Postseason Success

The Richmond Spiders are no strangers to postseason success. Dating back to the 2007 season, the Spiders are 7-3 in their last 10-playoff games – including winning the National Championship in 2008. All-time, Richmond is 12-9 in the FCS Playoffs. Last season the Spiders advanced to the second round of the FCS Playoffs with a 46-24 win over Morgan State and would finish with a 9-5 record to go with a 5-3 mark in the CAA.

Dynamic All-CAA WR Duo

WR Reggie Diggs and WR Brian Brown provided a great, 1-2 punch for Richmond last season. Diggs, a Second-Team All-CAA honoree in 2014 and Preseason All-CAA choice, ranked second in the CAA in receiving yards (1,157) and second in receptions (85). Brown, a Third-Team All-CAA honoree and also a Preseason All-CAA choice, was third in the league in receiving yards (1,089) and third in receptions (79).

2014 FCS Playoffs

WR's Reggie Diggs and Brian Brown both had huge games in the FCS Playoffs in 2014. Diggs finished with 272 yards on 16 receptions in just two games, finishing second among all WR that participated in the playoffs in terms of yards gained. Brown caught 14 balls for 216 yards and ranked fourth among wide-outs with 108 yards/game.

Preseason All-Americans

The Spiders have three Preseason All-Americans on the roster this season in RB Seth Fisher, WR Reggie Diggs and PK Peter Yoder. All of them have been chosen by various publications while WR Brian Brown has been selected as an honorable mention.

Spiders Picked to Finish Fifth in the CAA

When the CAA announced its preseason poll, the coaches chose Richmond to finish fifth behind Villanova, James Madison, New Hampshire and William & Mary, respectively. The Spiders did however land several players on the Preseason All-Conference teams, including WR's Reggie Diggs and Brian Brown, RB Seth Fisher and PK Peter Yoder.

No. 18 in Preseason Coaches Poll

The Spiders were chosen by the coaches as the No. 18 team in the nation to begin this 2015 campaign after finishing ranked No. 16 in the final poll of 2014 which marked the second time under head coach Danny Rocco that Richmond closed the season ranked. Richmond was one of four CAA programs ranked nationally in the preseason along with No. 3 Villanova, No. 7 New Hampshire and No. 13 James Madison.

Capital Cup 125

This season the Richmond Spiders and William & Mary Tribe, "The Oldest Rivalry in the South," will meet for the 125th time. The site of the game will be E. Claiborne Robins Stadium and the Spiders will enter the game having won three-straight meetings and eight of the last 10. Last season Richmond knocked off No. 19/22 William & Mary, 34-20, on the road to retain the Capital Cup.

Richmond Chooses Team Captains For 2015

In a team vote conducted prior to the start of the 2015 season, the Spiders have elected WR Reggie Diggs and OL Thomas Evans as captains of the offensive unit while choosing LB Omar Howard and DL Winston Craig to captain the defense.

Yoder Sets School Field Goal Record

With his 42-yard field goal against Morgan State last season, junior PK Peter Yoder set the Richmond single-season record with his 19th made field goal of the season. Yoder's 93 points scored in 2014 rank sixth all-time on the school's single-season list. Against James Madison last week, Yoder hit on a career-long 48 yarder.

The Total Package

No other team in CAA Football has won more conference titles since 1998 than Richmond. The Spiders have six to their credit ('98, '00, '05, '07, '09, '12), two more than Massachusetts and Delaware. In 2008, Richmond became just the second-ever private school to win the FCS National Championship.

FCS On ESPN College GameDay

2008's FCS GameDay appearance was Nov. 15 when Hampton and Florida A&M matched up. Hampton finished that season 6-5 while Florida A&M finished 9-3. GameDay visited North Dakota State in 2013 and 2014. NDSU went a combined 30-1 during those two seasons, collecting a pair of national championships.

Richmond Undefeated in Night Games at Robins Stadium

With a 42-10 win over in-state rival VMI on Sept 19th, the Spiders have posted an undefeated mark of 9-0 in night games at home. Last year, UR began the season with wins over Morehead State 55-10, and beat Hampton, 42-17 under the lights.

Rocco Leads Richmond to Share of 2012 CAA Championship

In 2012, first-year head coach Danny Rocco led Richmond to a share of the CAA Football championship, posting an overall record of 8-3 and a conference mark of 6-2. The five-win turnaround is the second-best in the history of Richmond football, while the six-conference win improvement was the best in the CAA.

Future FBS Opponents

The Richmond Spiders announced their future FBS opponents, with Virginia playing a prominent role in the future schedule. The two teams will meet at least two more times in the near future – 2016 and 2018. The Spiders will play Boston College in 2017 and 2019, Pittsburgh in 2020 and Virginia Tech in 2021.

E. Claiborne Robins Stadium

The stadium bears the name E. Claiborne Robins in honor of the decades of generous support that the Robins Family and the Robins Foundation have provided to the University. Since 2001, the previous facility at the site had been known as the First Market Stadium, in recognition of a gift from Bobby Ukrop, President and Chief Executive Officer of Ukrop's Supermarkets, Richmond alumnus and emeritus member of the University's Board of Trustees.

DANNY ROCCO

HEAD COACH
 Fourth Season
 Wake Forest, 1984

After a four-year absence from the FCS Playoffs, Rocco led the Spiders back to the postseason in 2014, reaching the second round. The Spiders earned an at-large bid to the playoffs after finishing the regular season with an overall record of 8-4 and a mark of 5-3 in CAA conference play.

Despite another rash of injuries to key players, the Spiders notched a pair of impressive wins over ranked teams to earn their at-large bid. Richmond knocked off No. 3 Villanova, 10-9, before beating No. 19 William & Mary in Williamsburg for the third-straight year to end the season. In the playoffs, Richmond hosted a game for the first time at Robins Stadium, handily defeating Morgan State, 46-24, before falling at No. 6 Coastal Carolina in the second round.

The Spiders were a mainstay in the national rankings all season long in 2014, reaching as high as No. 8. Richmond ended the year ranked No. 16 in both the media and the coaches poll.

After inheriting a Richmond Spiders football team that went 3-8 overall and 0-8 in CAA play in 2011, head coach Danny Rocco arrived in 2012 and immediately made good on the promise he made the day he was hired - return the Spider program back to its winning ways.

In 2013, the Spiders entered the year ranked No. 14 in the country, rising to No. 12 after a season-opening win against VMI. At NC State, Richmond opened up a 21-10 lead in the second half against the Wolfpack, but a last-second field goal would propel NCSU past the Spiders.

Close losses and injuries cost Richmond early in the season, but the team responded under Rocco to win its final four games of the season in impressive fashion. After wins over CAA newcomers Albany and Stony Brook, the Spiders recorded an impressive, 46-43 win at No. 21 Delaware. Then in the final game of the season, Rocco led the team to its second-straight Capital Cup victory, 31-20, over No. 19-ranked William & Mary.

In 2012, Rocco led Richmond to a share of the CAA Football championship, posting an overall record of 8-3 and a conference mark of 6-2. The five-win turnaround is the second-best in the history of Richmond football, while the six-conference win improvement was the best in the CAA. The Spiders had numerous quality wins in 2012, defeating Villanova in Philadelphia, while also taking down then No. 2-ranked James Madison. Richmond also defeated perennial CAA power Delaware at Robins Stadium.

For his efforts, Rocco was named a finalist not only for the Eddie Robinson Award, but also the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award. Both distinctions marked the fourth time that Rocco had been named a finalist for the two honors in his seven years as a head coach. Rocco was also named The Touchdown Club of Richmond's NCAA Division I Commonwealth of Virginia Coach of the Year.

Continuing the trend he set during his tenure at Liberty, the Spiders led the nation in turnover margin in 2012 (+22), while also leading the country in interceptions with 24. On the other side of the ball, Richmond's offensive line proved to be one of the finest in all of the FCS, leading the CAA and ranking in a tie for third nationally with just five sacks allowed all season.

In three seasons under Rocco, Richmond players have earned 34 All-CAA honors, 12 All-America accolades and one NFL Draft selection.

Prior to coming to Richmond, Rocco had one of the most successful coaching stints in the history of Liberty University. Rocco arrived at Liberty following the program's 1-10 finish in 2005 and transformed the program as the architect of six consecutive winning seasons with the Flames. During his first season in 2006, Liberty won five more games (6-5) than the previous year, an improvement that tied for the best FCS turnaround in the nation that season.

As a result of his immediate impact on the program, Rocco was named Big South Coach of the Year for the first time in school history in 2006, the first of three-straight years he would receive the honor. He would go on to be named a finalist for the national Eddie Robinson Award and Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award in each of the final three seasons in Lynchburg.

Since the team's stunning turnaround in 2006, Rocco's teams continued to dominate in the Big South Conference and beyond. The Flames rolled to a 47-20 overall record and an impressive 26-5 mark in Big South play under Rocco, winning no fewer than seven games in each of his final five seasons. Nationally, Liberty finished the last four years ranked inside the Top 25 in both major FCS polls.

During Rocco's six years at the helm in Lynchburg, the Flames captured their first-ever Big South Championship in 2007 - the first of three consecutive conference titles. During this four-year span, Rocco had the third-highest winning percentage among FCS coaches nationally with his 34-11 record (.756).

Liberty was able to achieve and sustain such success under Rocco by winning on both sides of the ball. From 2007-10, the Flames ranked first in the nation among FCS programs with 37.28 scoring average per game while ranking seventh by allowing just 19.17 points per game. The Flames were also the top-ranked team in FCS Football in turnover margin over the course of Rocco's first five seasons at Liberty.

Rocco's players undoubtedly excelled under his guidance at Liberty. He coached 97 Big South all-conference honorees and 19 players who garnered All-America honors, including a pair of consensus All-Americans in running back Rashad Jennings (2008) and kicker Matt Begins (2009, 2010).

Four of Rocco's student-athletes at Liberty, Vince Redd (New England), Stephen Sene (St. Louis), Trey Jacobs (Washington) and Rashad Jennings (Jacksonville) went on to play in the professional ranks in the National Football League. Jennings became Liberty's first NFL Draft selection in two decades when he was chosen in the seventh round by the Jaguars in 2009.

Prior to his arrival at Liberty, Rocco spent the previous five seasons at Virginia, beginning in 2001. Here, he helped guide the Cavaliers to four-consecutive bowl appearances, including back-to-back Continental Tire Bowl victories in 2002 and 2003, and 37 overall wins alongside Al Groh as an assistant head coach and linebacker coach.

Rocco would also serve as the Cavaliers' recruiting coordinator his first year in Charlottesville. His 2002 recruiting class was ranked in the top 10 in the nation by many of the major recruiting services, including a fifth-place ranking by ESPN. Rocco would quickly be promoted to associate head coach while continuing to serve as linebackers coach.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Wake Forest. He spent the 1984 and 1985 seasons with the Demon Deacons before being hired as the defensive line coach before the 1986 season.

Rocco was then hired by Colorado head coach Bill McCartney as an assistant linebackers coach for the 1987 season before heading to Tulsa to serve as the outside linebackers coach from 1998-2000.

He returned to the East Coast for the 1991-93 season to work for current New York Giants head coach Tom Coughlin as his defensive line coach at Boston College, helping Coughlin revitalize the Golden Eagle's return to the national stage as participants in the 1992 Hall of Fame Bowl and the 1993 Carquest Bowl.

Following his successful stint at Boston College, Rocco then served as the outside linebackers coach at the University of Texas at Austin, where the Longhorns captured three straight conference titles, including winning the inaugural Big 12 Championship in 1996 and earning bids to three consecutive bowl games (Sun Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Fiesta Bowl).

His career would then continue at Maryland, where he served as the linebackers coach during the 1998 and 1999 seasons before reuniting with his mentor, Groh, as an assistant linebacker and special teams coach with the New York Jets for the team's 2000 campaign. He would then follow Groh to Virginia for the 2001-2005 seasons.

Rocco began his college playing career at Penn State, where he earned two varsity letters and competed in the 1979 Liberty Bowl and the 1980 Fiesta Bowl before transferring to Wake Forest. While in Winston-Salem, he was a two-year starter and senior captain for Groh.

He was no stranger to coaching after growing up in a football family. His father, Frank Rocco, Sr., served as an assistant coach at Penn State under Hall of Fame coach Joe Paterno before joining the Liberty staff for a six-year stint in 2000. Frank Rocco, Jr., also joined the Flames staff in 2000 as a wide receivers and quarterback coach and received a promotion to offensive coordinator prior to his departure in 2003. Both he and brother, Dave, both currently coach at the high school level in Virginia.

A native of Huntingdon, Pa., Rocco is married to the former Julie Mills. They are the parents of two children, David and Amy.

"When he was with me at Boston College, he was an outstanding young football coach, and he had his blinders on from Day One: Family, Religion and Football. He has great people skills, and as a result, has always been an outstanding recruiter and football coach, and the players enjoy playing for him."

Tom Coughlin - N.Y. Giants Head Coach

"Danny has a proven track record of winning and getting the best out of the student-athletes he serves. He does it the right way. I am sure he will be successful and as a football alumnus welcome him to Richmond."

Mike London - Virginia Head Coach

"I've known Dan Rocco since he was a captain of our team at Wake Forest. Dan knows the game inside and out, and most importantly, knows how to get the best out of his players. He's the fourth member from our Virginia staff to be the head coach at Richmond. They know what they're getting, and that's an outstanding coach."
